Here are the events for:
Wednesday, September 26 - Saturday, September 29

Remember that if you'd like to submit an event blurb for the weekly email, make sure to send it to ssu8qk@virginia.edu by NOON on Wednesday.

Have a great weekend everybody!

Presented by Hoos Sober: a weekly mailing about the alcohol-free weekend activities at UVA.
*Sophia Urban, Hoos Sober Moderator

If you want to unsubscribe or change your options, visit the general list information page at: https://lists.virginia.edu/sympa.
DID YOU KNOW?

THE WORD "LETHOLOGICA" DESCRIBES THE STATE OF NOT BEING ABLE TO REMEMBER THE WORD YOU WANT.

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

FEATURED EVENTS
Less than one month after arriving at the University of Colorado, pledge Gordie Bailey was found dead as a result of a hazing-related alcohol overdose.

His death was entirely preventable.

HAZE
A FEATURE DOCUMENTARY
Wednesday, September 26th @ 7:30pm — Newcomb Hall Theater

A panel discussion with Dean Allen Groves and Fraternity & Sorority Life will begin at 8:15pm, immediately following the HAZE viewing.

— Fulfills FOA Requirements —

ODOS and Student Activities presents: CIO Workshop Series

September 26th
Should I Stay or Should I Go? The Committee Member Dilemma
Newcomb Hall, Gallery | 6pm

Ever wondered why people leave groups, stay in groups and how to hold members accountable? If so, this workshop will talk about some of the typical reasons and give solutions on how to hold people accountable to the group itself and tips on how to have those tough conversations.

Register Here: https://atuva.student.virginia.edu/form/start/12667

If you have any questions about the workshop listed here or upcoming workshops please email studentactivities@virginia.edu

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~
Interested in becoming a sustainability advocate? E-mail ktf3tb@virginia.edu for more info about getting involved with promoting sustainability initiatives around grounds.

Are you up for a challenge? Over the year students, faculty, and staff can participate in the UVA Green Challenge to learn habits of living green and getting involved in the community with monthly themes. September focuses on eating and shopping more sustainably. E-mail hmm7cs@virginia.edu to get started and earn points towards awesome prizes!

The ROSE Program (Reusable Office Supply Exchange) takes in surplus office supplies and makes them available to students, faculty, staff, and student organizations at no charge. Pick up folders, desk organizers, clips, ink cartridges, poster board, and much more. Located in the Recycling Building at the end of Leake Drive (one street down from O’Hill Dining Hall). Open Monday-Friday from 8 am-3 pm.

Wednesday, September 26, 2012

Sex, Sin, and Science: Syphilis in America
12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.
Jordan Hall Conference Center Auditorium

This week’s Medical Center Hour features the University of Maryland’s John Parascandola, medical historian and author of an award-winning book on syphilis in America. Parascandola will examine the social, cultural and medical factors that help to shape the way we understand and react to diseases--particularly diseases associated with sex.

***
Points On Your Map: Street Addresses and More Spatial Things
1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.
Campbell 105

Do you have a list of street addresses crying out to be mapped? Have a list of zip codes or census tracts you wish to associate with other data? We’ll start with addresses and other things spatial and end with points on a map, ready for visualization and analysis. Email for more information.

***

Vonage + UVA OpenGrounds Challenge Q&A
5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.
OpenGrounds Studio

Students are driving change around the world through social messaging and media. But are text messages and Facebook walls the last step in this evolution? Can you think of something better? Vonage and OpenGrounds are challenging U.Va. students to invent the next step forward in this “Future of Social Messaging Concept Competition.” OpenGrounds will be holding a Q&A session for anyone interested in inventing new platforms, interfaces, media, apps, hardware or more.

Thursday, September 27

The Classroom, the Book, and the Screen
9:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Harrison Institute/Small Special Collections Library

This symposium explores current measures to protect and promote the study of the humanities, featuring presentations by the executive directors of the College Art Association, the American Historical Association, and the Modern Language Association (the three largest humanities associations of the American Council of Learned Societies). See website for more information and a complete schedule.

***

Crisis in Syria
11:00 a.m.
Miller Center

The Miller Center welcomes Michele Dunne, director of the Atlantic Council’s Rafik Hariri Center for the Middle East, for this Forum. Dunne has served on the White House’s National Security Council staff, and the State Department’s Policy Planning and Bureau of Intelligence and Research’s staffs.

***
Sociology Professor Rae Blumberg will present her ongoing research on the possible problems (and potential) facing increased proportions of women in parliaments. Professors Milton Vickerman and Yuliya Dudaronak will provide critical feedback.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

Breakfast Club: Letter to His Father
11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
UVa Art Museum

Join Thomas Berenato for this Breakfast Club discussion of Franz Kafka’s Letter to His Father. Breakfast is provided! Sign up here.

***

Entrepreneurship Cup Workshop
12:00 p.m.
OpenGrounds Studio

Interested in this year’s U.Va. Entrepreneurship Cup? Looking for team members, or an idea to get you started? This Design Thinking Workshop will provide students with the opportunity to compare interests, form teams and develop concepts for E-Cup submissions. Business experts will also be on hand to help students craft their business concepts in the emerging style of “design thinking.” Learn more and register here.

***

GAGE Colloquium: Postindustrial Presidency
12:30 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.
Miller Center

Margaret O’Mara, associate professor of history at the University of Washington, will be speaking on inventing the postindustrial presidency. RSVP by 12:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 26.

***

The Historical Anthropology of Guerrilla Warfare
1:00 p.m.
Brooks Hall, 2nd Floor Conference Room
Rutgers University’s Michael Adas will focus on the dynamics of the elite-peasant interactions which eventually coalesced into guerrilla tactics and strategies for waging revolutionary guerrilla warfare. Attention will be given to changes in the political reach and military power of agrarian state systems, and the ways in which guerilla warfare has become vastly more costly and lethal for both combatants and civilians in the second half of the twentieth century.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

Is Our Ocean In Crisis?
10:00 a.m.
Alumni Hall

Nearly 90% of the Earth’s population lives within 100 miles of the ocean, an ocean that covers 71% of the planet and provides a sixth of the world’s protein. The threat to this unique ecosystem from climate change, pollution, and overpopulation has never been greater. Professor Stephen Macko will discuss this current status of this precious resource. Register here.

(events courtesy of EngageUVA)