DID YOU KNOW?

It would take 11 Empire State Buildings, stacked one on top of the other, to measure the Gulf of Mexico at its deepest point.

Do you want to learn more about drugs and alcohol?
Do you want to serve as an invaluable resource for your fellow students?

Then apply to join ADAPT!!
The Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Team (ADAPT) is dedicated to addressing the issues of alcohol and other drug abuse in the University of Virginia community. As peer educators, we promote awareness, provide educational outreach, and serve as accessible resources for our fellow students. Our primary purpose is to minimize the abuse of alcohol and other drugs in an effort to promote a healthier environment at our University.

Send the application attached to this email to adapt-uva@virginia.edu by 10pm on Sunday, March 3rd!

Hi everyone,

My name is Maura and I'm the co-editor of a student publication called Catalyst Magazine. We exist to promote awareness about global humanitarian issues and ways that students can get involved to help. We're looking for a layout editor to work with InDesign.

Also, we would love to include student artwork on the cover! We're open to anything—photography, drawing, graphic design. This is an awesome opportunity to have your artwork seen all over Grounds. The current issue is on global conceptions of beauty and the lengths people in different cultures go to in order to appear "beautiful."

Please email me if either the layout editor position or submitting artwork for the cover interests you!

Best,
"CELLOMANIA"

AMIT PELED, cello

NOREEN POLERA, piano

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2013

A History of the World in Six Glasses
12:00 p.m.
Northside Library (300 Albemarle Square)

Northside Library hosts “Books Sandwiched In,” a series of presentations of books reviewed by noted local people. This week we will discuss an offbeat history of the world traces the story of humankind from the Stone Age to the twenty-first century from the perspective of six different drinks—beer, wine, spirits, coffee, tea, and cola—describing their pervasive influence during pivotal eras of world history, from humankind’s adoption of agriculture to the advent of globalization.

Pornography and Masculinity: The Production and Consumption of Inequality

12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.
OpenGrounds Studio on the Corner

We live in a culture in which violence and aggression are normative aspects of idealized masculinity, in which pornography functions as a core component of most boys and young men's gender and sexual socialization, and in which levels of men’s violence against women reach pandemic levels. In this frank and honest discussion, Dr. Matt Ezzell (Assistant Professor of Sociology at James Madison University) will explore the ways these things are connected. RSVP.

Straight No Chaser

8:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
John Paul Jones Arena

Currently in the midst of their #SNClive Fall 2012 Tour, Straight No Chaser – who was featured on the “Generation YouTube” episode of ABC’s 20/20 – is using the tour to continue expanding on their social media interaction with fans. The group credits a large amount of its success to its early adoption and encouragement of sharing content. "This group started because of a viral video on YouTube," explains group member Randy Stine. "From day one, we have encouraged fans to upload photos and videos from our shows, even expanding venue photo policies to ensure that this was possible. We are excited to really drive home the idea of building a fan community around content by naming our tour #SNClive." As its name suggest, #SNClive will be a multi-platform concert event, with the hashtag giving fans a way to search and categorize content specific to this tour across all social media platforms. Cost: $29 - $45.

Saturday, February 16

Know the Score: Pre-Concert Lecture

7:15 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Minor Hall
Pre-Concert Lectures are free and begin 45 minutes prior to each performance. McIntire Department of Music Chair Richard Will leads "Know the Score," our insightful pre-concert lecture series.
