Here are the events for:
Friday, February 22 - Sunday, February 24

Remember that if you'd like to submit an event blurb for the weekly email, make sure to send it to ssu8qk@virginia.edu by NOON on Wednesday.

Have a great weekend everybody!

Presented by Hoos Sober: a weekly mailing about the alcohol-free weekend activities at UVA.
*Sophia Urban, Hoos Sober Moderator

If you want to unsubscribe or change your options, visit the general list information page at: https://lists.virginia.edu/sympa.
DID YOU KNOW?

Rhode Island is the smallest state with the longest name. The official name, used on all state documents, is "Rhode Island and Providence Plantations."

FEATURED EVENTS

Do you want to learn more about drugs and alcohol?

Do you want to serve as an invaluable resource for your fellow students?

Then apply to join ADAPT!!
The Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Team (ADAPT) is dedicated to addressing the issues of alcohol and other drug abuse in the University of Virginia community. As peer educators, we promote awareness, provide educational outreach, and serve as accessible resources for our fellow students. Our primary purpose is to minimize the abuse of alcohol and other drugs in an effort to promote a healthier environment at our University.

Send the application attached to this email to adapt-uva@virginia.edu by 10pm on Sunday, March 3rd!

Like us on Facebook!
And follow us on Twitter!

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Submit to the Academical Heritage Review

U.Va’s own undergraduate history journal

It is my pleasure to extend to you an exciting opportunity to get your research published. The Academical Heritage Review, the University's own undergraduate history journal is now accepting submissions for the Fall 2013 edition. I would like to invite you to submit any research-based paper or article you have written in your time here as an undergraduate. This is a wonderful opportunity to showcase your work and promote undergraduate research at the University. When printed, The Academical Heritage Review will be widely distributed around grounds.

In addition to personal and class assigned research we are also accepting Book Reviews. The Academical Heritage Review is now accepting book reviews of recent historical scholarship. Book reviews should be no longer than 5 pages in length and review a work of the last calendar year.

Now in its fourth year of existence, the Academical Heritage Review is published by the University Historical Society. UHS is a Contracted Independent Organization (CIO) on grounds devoted to promoting the study of history at U.Va, as well as showcasing the rich history of the University. The society meets on Mondays at 8:00 in Jefferson Hall, Hotel C West Range. I would like to invite anyone interested to come sit in on one of the Society's meetings.

The submission deadline for the Academical Heritage Review is Friday, February 22. Please visit the University Historical Society's website, www.UHSVirginia.wordpress.com for more information and to submit your work. Please do not hesitate to contact Catherine Creighton, Editor in Chief, at ahr@virginia.edu or 817-524-5992 if you have any questions.

Thank you in advance for your submissions!

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

"CELLOMANIA"

AMIT PELED, cello

&

NOREEN POLERA, piano

works by Glazunov, Granados, Mendelssohn, Schubert, Brahms, Beethoven, Haydn, Bloch, J.S. Bach & others

FEBRUARY 26

8 pm - Cabell Hall Auditorium - University of Virginia
"The flair of the young Rostropovich" - American Record Guide

From the U.S. to Europe to the Middle East and Asia, Israeli cellist Amit Peled, a musician of profound artistry and charismatic stage presence, returns to the Tuesday Evening Concert Series to present an extraordinary virtuoso concert of works by 13 composers spanning 4 centuries, with the highly regarded pianist Noreen Polera.

Tickets: $12-$33 & $5 one-hour-in-advance student rush tickets

EASY ONLINE TICKET PURCHASE via the UVA ARTS BOX OFFICE link & web address:

WWW.ARTSBOXOFFICE.VIRGINIA.EDU

or call

434-924-3376
The Underclass Debate: 30 Years Later
10:00 a.m.
Garrett Hall Great Room

Join Douglas S. Massey, Professor of Sociology and Public Affairs at Princeton University’s Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs, for a discussion of the processes of economic stratification in the United States and inequality in the United States along the lines of race, class, and gender.

***

Baseball vs. Toledo
3:00 p.m.
Davenport Field

***

Portraits in Color
7:00 p.m.
Student Activities Building

African-American achievement is central to every aspect of life. From politics to entertainment, African-American contributions have had tremendous impact throughout the world. This year, Step It Up honors black achievement in the arts as part of the 8th Annual Black History Month Celebration, which will include stepping, dancing, skits, and spoken word performed by various student groups.

***

Sing Me a Story: A Night of Lyrics and Conversation
7:00 p.m.
Newcomb Commonwealth Room
Join To Write Love on Her Arms at U.Va. for a night of love, hope, and help expressed through spoken word and music. Using the platform of music and spoken word, often-unspoken questions and themes of struggles will be illuminated, showing those walking through darkness that they are not alone. Website.

***

Dither Concert of New Music by UVA Emerging Composers
8:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Christ Episcopal Church 120 W. High Street

The University of Virginia McIntire Department of Music presents a residency by DITHER, (http://www.ditherquartet.com/), a New York based electric guitar quartet, is dedicated to an eclectic mix of experimental repertoire which spans composed music, improvisation, and electronic manipulation. The Dither Ensemble will perform new music by UVA Emerging Composers.

***

God’s Ear
8:00 p.m. - 11:00 p.m.
Helms Theatre

U.Va. Department of Drama presents the highly acclaimed play God’s Ear, directed by Sandy Shinner. Playwright Jenny Schwartz launches buckshot barrages of lyrical wordplay in this touching look at life, love and loss. When a tragedy leaves a couple unable to escape their grief, the power of language to enlighten and obscure takes center stage. Stuck in a world where real has lost all meaning, the characters create new ones where the Tooth Fairy is real, GI Joe is a family therapist and love is more a question than an answer. Tickets are on sale now and may be purchased online at http://www.artsboxoffice.virginia.edu (general website) or at http://tickets.artsboxoffice.virginia.edu/single/psDetail.aspx?psn=2461 (the show page), by phone at (434) 924-3376, and in person at the U.Va Arts Box Office Mon-Fri from noon-5pm. Tickets are $14 for adults, $12 for seniors, U.Va. faculty and staff, and U.Va Alumni Association members, and $8 for students. Free for UVA Students if purchased 24 hours before the show date.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23

Saturday Special Tour: Traces of the Hand
2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Fralin Museum of Art
Join U.Va. Art History Professor Lawrence Goedde for a special tour of U.Va.’s art museum. Traces of the Hand displays a selection of drawings from this collection and celebrates the Hermans’ achievement as discriminating collectors, highlighting areas in which the collection excels and which clearly correspond to their tastes and interests. These include social satire, portraiture, German Romanticism, and the depiction of the natural world through landscape and marine imagery.

***

Alpha Phi Omega: Open Community Service Project
9:00 a.m.

Come join APO, the only co-ed community service fraternity at U.Va, on our open community service project! We will meet at the Bice Parking Lot at 9 AM, and disperse throughout Charlottesville on various indoor and outdoor projects. Past projects have included working on farms, trailblazing, painting, splitting wood, and working at food pantries. Questions? Contact Mariya at apo.rushchair@gmail.com

***

Cello Masterclass with Dana and Jason McComb
3:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Old Cabell Hall

In OCH Room 107, University cello students will perform for guest cellists Dana and Jason McComb. Mr. and Mrs. McComb are on the cello faculty at Virginia Commonwealth University. The students will be performing works by Haydn, Debussy, and more. This event is free and open to the public.

***

Jazz Ensemble
8:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Old Cabell Hall

The McIntire Department of Music presents the Jazz Ensemble! Cost is $10/$5/Free for UVA Students if Reserved in Advance

---

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 24

Men's Basketball vs. Georgia Tech
2:00 p.m.
John Paul Jones Arena

***
Oscar Experience: Charlottesville
7:00 p.m.
Paramount Theater

A Benefit for the Virginia Film Festival’s 2013 Community Outreach & Education Program Presented by Wells Fargo

THE OSCARS® ARE BACK IN CHARLOTTESVILLE!

Put on the glitz and glam, walk the red carpet, and join your friends and fellow film lovers in celebrating the most exciting night of the entertainment year.

Join us for all of the thrills and surprises of the 85th Academy Awards® on Virginia’s largest high definition screen. Hollywood-inspired attire is encouraged, or better yet, come dressed as your favorite film character or movie star!

Benefiting the VFF’s 2013 Community Outreach & Education Program, the Charlottesville event is one of only 45 parties officially sanctioned by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences that will be held across the country on Oscar Night®.

Cost: General Admission Tickets : $45.00; VIP Experience Tickets: $100.00; Purchase Tickets through the UVA Arts Box Office.

***

Voice Faculty Recital
8:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Old Cabell Hall

McIntire Department of Music presents the Voice Faculty Recital!