The Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Team (ADAPT) is dedicated to addressing the issues of alcohol and other drug abuse in the University of Virginia community. As peer educators, we promote awareness, provide educational outreach, and serve as accessible resources for our fellow students. Our primary purpose is to minimize the abuse of alcohol and other drugs in an effort to promote a healthier environment at our University.

Board of Visitors Jeffersonian Dinner
6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Location To Be Announced

Members of the Board of Visitors will casually dine with students to discuss challenges facing the University and to brainstorm ideas for the future. Building off of Jeff Walker’s model for the “Jeffersonian dinner,” participants will gather to discuss one of three topics around a pavilion table. All participants will be sent a short reading and “opening question” in advance of the dinner. As is true with all “Jeffersonian dinners,” side conversation will not be permitted, in order to enable a focused, fun, and lively discussion. Sign up here.
