Phenomenological Encounters: Scenes from Central Europe
10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Nau 342

Yale University’s Marci Shore will discuss her newest project, which focuses on Husserl’s phenomenology and Heidegger’s existentialism as they took shape in Eastern Europe. The project is structured around these philosophical personalities, exploring their encounters, dialogues, and relationships with one another, and how the questions they pose become explicitly ethical questions.

What is Marriage?
4:00 p.m.
Mechanical Engineering Room 339

Until yesterday, no society had seen marriage as anything other than a conjugal partnership: a male-female union. What Is Marriage? identifies and defends the reasons for this historic consensus and shows why redefining civil marriage is unnecessary, unreasonable, and contrary to the common good. Join author Ryan T. Anderson, William E. Simon Fellow at the Heritage Foundation, for a presentation and discussion of what marriage really is.

God's Ear
8:00 p.m. - 11:00 p.m.
Helms Theatre

U.Va. Department of Drama presents the highly acclaimed play God's Ear, directed by Sandy Shinner. Playwright Jenny Schwartz launches buckshot barrages of lyrical wordplay in this touching look at life, love and loss. When a tragedy leaves a couple unable to escape their grief, the power of language to enlighten and obscure takes center stage. Stuck in a world where real has lost all meaning, the characters create new ones where the Tooth Fairy is real, GI Joe is a family therapist and love is more a question than an answer. Tickets are on sale now and may be purchased online at http://www.artsboxoffice.virginia.edu (general website) or at http://tickets.artsboxoffice.virginia.edu/single/psDetail.aspx?psn=2461 (the show page), by phone at (434) 924-3376, and in person at the U.Va Arts Box Office Mon-Fri from noon-5pm. Tickets are $14 for adults, $12 for seniors, U.Va. faculty and staff, and U.Va Alumni Association members, and $8 for students. Free for UVA Students if purchased 24 hours before the show date.
