Here are the events for:
Friday, March 22 - Sunday, March 24

Remember that if you'd like to submit an event blurb for the weekly email, make sure to send it to ssu8qk@virginia.edu by NOON on Wednesday.

Have a great weekend everybody!

Presented by Hoos Sober: a weekly mailing about the alcohol-free weekend activities at UVA.
*Sophia Urban, Hoos Sober Moderator

If you want to unsubscribe or change your options, visit the general list information page at: https://lists.virginia.edu/sympa.
DID YOU KNOW?

THERE ARE 336 DIMPLES ON A REGULATION GOLF BALL.

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

FEATURED EVENTS

U.Va. Sustainability will be holding a Water Art Contest in Celebration of World Water Day on Friday, March 22nd from 10-3pm. Any medium is welcome. All submissions will be displayed on the West Plaza of Newcomb on March 22nd for voting. Prizes will be awarded to the top three submissions. Please email energy.wateruva@gmail.com for more details about the contest.

For more information about World Water Day or for inspiration for your water art please visit http://www.unwater.org/watercooperation2013/about.html.

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~
The Virginia Festival of the Book, March 20th - 24th, is a 5-day festival of literary events that are open to the public, honoring book culture and promoting reading and literacy. Website.

FRIDAY, MARCH 22, 2013

Opening Sustainability: Recycling Edition
2:00 p.m.
OpenGrounds Studio

Join UVa Sustainability, Batten School Professor William Shobe, and Urban and Environmental Planning Professor Ellen Bassett in a roundtable discussion of the policy challenges and economics of recycling.
Religious and Sacred Imperative in Human Conflict
2:00 p.m.
Brooks Hall 2nd Floor Conference Room

Scott Atran, Presidential Scholar in Sociology at John Jay College, discusses the human propensity to define the groups to which they belong in abstract terms. Atran will discuss how religion increases in-group trust but also may increase mistrust and conflict with outgroups. Whether for cooperation or conflict, sacred values such as devotion to God or a collective cause signal group identity and operate as moral imperatives that inspire nonrational exertions independent of likely outcomes.

Germany vs. Europe: Germany’s Principle of Democracy and the Struggle for European Integration
3:00 p.m.
Monroe 124

In anticipation of this fall’s federal election in Germany, this talk will explore the constitutional framework for Germany’s contemporary democracy and the wide service to which the German Federal Constitutional Court has put the “principle of democracy”, the principle that has come to serve as the chief barrier to Germany’s deeper integration into the European Union, recently calling into question Germany’s essential participation in the Euro-crisis bailouts. Russell Miller of Washington & Lee University will speak, followed by a roundtable discussion with Mila Versteeg (UVa School of Law), and Gerard Alexander (Woodrow Wilson Department of Politics at UVa).

Baseball vs. NC State
6:00 p.m.
Davenport Field

Mara Gibson and Michael Hall Concert
7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
Open Grounds Corner Studio

A free concert brought to you by the Composition and Computer Technologies program at the University of Virginia’s McIntire Department of Music.
More on Mara Gibson: http://composerscircle.com/mara-gibson/
The Voting Wars: Elections and the Law from Registration to Inauguration
10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.
Caplin Pavilion, University of Virginia School of Law

The Journal of Law & Politics will host its symposium titled “The Voting Wars: Elections and the Law from Registration to Inauguration.” Professor Richard L. Hasen, Professor of Law and Political Science at the University of California, Irvine, will deliver the keynote address. The symposium will also feature two panels, entitled “Protecting the Franchise” and “Election Day and Beyond.”

***

Outdoor Track and Field - Virginia Cup
1:00 p.m.
Lannigan Field

***

Women's Lacrosse vs. Duke
1:00 p.m.
Boar's Head Sports Club

***

Baseball vs. NC State
1:00 p.m.
Davenport Field

***

Know the Score Pre-Concert Lecture
7:15 p.m. - 8:15 p.m.
Minor Hall

McIntire Department of Music Chair Richard Will leads "Know the Score," our insightful pre-concert lecture series. Professor Will is author of The Characteristic Symphony in the Age of Haydn and Beethoven and of articles and reviews on 18th- and early 19th-century music. The popular professor is also interested in 20th-century American popular music, especially country music and bluegrass, and hosts a bluegrass jam session for UVA graduates and undergraduates. He has received fellowships from the American Philosophical Society, the German Academic Exchange Service, and the American Musicological Society.

***
Charlottesville & University Symphony Orchestra
8:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Old Cabell Hall

The McIntire Department of Music presents the Charlottesville & University Symphony Orchestra with their season program, "Let's Dance!"
Cost: $10-$38.

Sunday, March 24

Baseball vs. NC State
1:00 p.m.
Davenport Field